

Internal Medicine PGY2 Residents:

Nathan Allred completed his undergraduate education at the University of Utah and graduated from the University of Utah, School of Medicine. He is fluent in Russian and lived and worked in Russia for 18 months. His interests include bicycling, economics, Russian literature and gardening.

Troy Badger completed his undergraduate education at Columbia University and graduated from the University of Utah, School of Medicine. His interests include watching his brother play high school football, alpine ski racing (masters), golfing and traveling with wife. He is fluent in Bulgarian.

Chandramouli Banerjee completed his undergraduate education at Creighton University and graduated from Ross University, School of Medicine. His interests include music, philosophy, and history.

Lyle Berry completed his undergraduate education at the University of Colorado and graduated from the University of Kansas, School of Medicine. His interests include basketball, racquetball, running, snowboarding, hiking, camping, fly fishing, reading, cooking, and traveling (particularly in Latin America).

Christopher Brown completed his undergraduate education at Utah State University and graduated from the University of Virginia, School of Medicine. His interests include cycling, mountain biking, rock climbing, mountaineering, fly fishing, skiing, snowboarding, hiking, backpacking, and surfing. Traveling is also a passion and has visited all over the world.

Photo
Pending

Mary Carver is a new transfer into our program starting 7/1/09. She graduated from Indiana University School of Medicine and is originally from Indianapolis. She enjoys running, rollerblading, tennis, scuba diving, and playing the cello and piano.

David Chu completed his undergraduate education at Swarthmore College and graduated from the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, Pennsylvania State University. His interests include weight-lifting, running, cello, computers, and Asian culture/history.

Sriharsha Damera graduated from Andhra Medical College in India. He enjoys traveling and has visited most of the sought after destinations in India and England. His interests include cricket, volleyball, college football and fishing.

Alexis Harrison completed her undergraduate education at Vanderbilt University, received her Masters in Medical Sciences from the University of Florida and graduated from the University of South Florida, College of Medicine. Her interests include time with her family, reading literature, kayaking, swimming, studying art history and traveling.

Heather Howe completed her undergraduate education at the University of Colorado and graduated from the University of Colorado, School of Medicine. Her interests include mountain biking, long distance running, and spending time with family and friends. She also enjoys playing the cello. Her husband is in the Emergency Medicine residency program.

Jessica Johnson completed her undergraduate education at Eckerd College, received her M.S. from the University of South Florida of Medicine and graduated from the University of South Florida, College of Medicine. Her interests include running, dog training, landscaping, scuba diving, kayaking, jewelry making, painting and traveling. She is fluent in Spanish and proficient in American Sign Language.

David Kaplan completed his undergraduate education at Arizona State University and graduated from the University of Arizona, College of Medicine. His interests include hiking, camping, mountain biking, studying evolutionary biology, reading philosophy, being a low-budget audiophile, and appreciating obscure music.

Eric Lindley completed his undergraduate education at the University of Utah and graduated from the George Washington University, School of Medicine. His interests include multiple sports and spending time with his wife jogging, playing football and just watching TV.

Photo pending

Ehsan Malek was born in Yazd, Iran. He completed his medical education at Shahid Beheshti Medical School in Iran. He is a new transfer into our program; he completed his PGY1 year in Internal Medicine at Jersey City Medical Center. He enjoys hiking, rock climbing, and swimming.

Tiffany Milner - (Medicine-Pediatrics) completed her undergraduate education from Duke University and graduated from the University of Texas, Medical School at San Antonio. Her interests include ultimate frisbee, running, yoga, guitar, photography and gardening.

Scott Moulton completed his undergraduate education at the University of Utah and graduated from the Touro University, College of Osteopathic Medicine. His interests include spending time with his family, golf, photography, sports, computers, reading and film.

Mark Mulcaire-Jones completed his undergraduate education at Gonzaga University and graduated from the Medical College of Wisconsin. His interests include soccer, hockey, rock climbing, camping, hiking, reading, travel, Frisbee and golf.

Sujata Narayanan graduated from Kasturba Medical College in India and then received her M.S. from Columbia University. She completed a PGY1 year in medicine/pediatrics at Jefferson University in Philadelphia. Her interests include hiking, rafting, rock climbing, traveling, writing, watching movies, and reading good fiction/non-fiction.

Andrea Nelson completed her undergraduate education at the University of Minnesota and graduated from the University of Minnesota, Medical School. She is a sports enthusiast and enjoys marathons, morning runs, intramural basketball, softball, ultimate Frisbee and kickball. She also enjoys kayaking, backpacking, camping and cooking. She is proficient in American Sign Language.

Anil Pandit graduated from Manipal College of Medical Sciences in Nepal. He is fluent in Nepali and Hindi. He completed a PGY1 year in Baltimore, Maryland. His interests include trekking at high altitudes, swimming and soccer.

Gopi Penmetsa graduated from Andhra Medical College in India. His interests include: traveling, exploring different cultures and places, English football and was an active philatelist as a child.

Kathryn Piercy - (Medicine/Pediatrics) completed her undergraduate education at the Southern Nazarene University and graduated from the University of Oklahoma, College of Medicine. Her interests include the piano, sewing, knitting, hosting dinner parties, camping and snow skiing.

Michelle Regruto completed her undergraduate education at Westminster College in Salt Lake City and graduated from the University of Utah, School of Medicine. Her interests include camping, hiking and fishing.

Aravind Sekhar is a transfer into our program from Memorial Hospital of Rhode Island/Brown University. He graduated from medical school from Bangalore Medical College in India and received his Ph.D. in Molecular Biology in Germany. Aravind is originally from Bangalore, India. He enjoys reading particularly nonfiction and biographies, music, traveling, calligraphy, and biking.

Samuel Slomowitz completed his undergraduate education at the University of California Los Angeles in both Molecular, Cellular & Developmental Biology and Anthropology. He graduated from Saint George's University School of Medicine. His interests include traveling, surfing, fishing, hiking, camping, mountain biking and scuba diving.

Melissa Sugar completed her undergraduate education at the University of Michigan and graduated from Tulane University, School of Medicine. Her interests include cooking, bicycling, triathlons, and home improvement projects.

Matthew Taintor - (Medicine/Pediatrics) completed his undergraduate education at Bethel University and graduate from the University of Minnesota, Medical School. His interests include teaching, coaching, reading, talking politics, hanging out with his wife Shireen, hiking, biking, jogging, backpacking, camping, hunting, fishing, mountaineering, making maple syrup, fly-fishing and fly-tying.

Srinivas Tantravahi graduated from Guntur Medical College in India. He also spent a year at the Royal College of Physicians in the United Kingdom. His interests include traveling, painting, reading, music, badminton, and cricket.

Michael Walker completed his undergraduate education at the University of Utah and graduated from the Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science/Chicago Medical School. His interests include soccer, running, tennis, reading, serving in local church and spending time with his wife and family.

Chesley Wells completed her undergraduate education at the University of Georgia and graduated from the Medical College of Georgia. Her interests include running, tennis, sailing, traveling, piano and reading.

Kari Yacisin is a transfer into our program from Internal Medicine residency at University of Texas Southwestern, Dallas. She graduated from medical school at Wake Forest University and her undergraduate at Duke University. She was born in Boulder, Colorado. Her interests include studying public health and tropical medicine. She enjoys traveling around the world, hiking, and backpacking.

Oleg Zbirun completed his undergraduate education in both Biochemistry and Philosophy at the University of Washington and graduated from the University of Washington, School of Medicine. His interests include medical ethics, photography, drawing, chess, biking, skiing, rollerblading and travel.